ANNUAL MEETING BRYAN GOOD CHEER ASSOCIATION WILL BE HELD ON NEXT MONDAY, NOVEMBER 24--ELECT OFFICERS

Mrs. J. L. Brock, president of the executive committee of the Bryan and Brazos County Good Cheer Organization called a meeting of that committee on Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss the annual meeting of the organization, which is held each year at which time reports of the various activities of the work are given, the financing of the work during the coming year discussed, plans laid for the new year and officers elected. It was the sense of the members of the executive committee present on Monday that the annual meeting will be held on next Monday afternoon, November 24th, at 4:30 o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce.

It is greatly desired that the annual meeting of the Bryan and Brazos County Good Cheer Association be largely attended, and that the people come with interest of the organization in their hearts to the extent that a free discussion of ways and means for carrying on this vital work and making it a blessing and a help to all in need will be entered into. The "half can never be told" of the good accomplished through this organization, but statistics for the past year show figures that prove much that is gratifying. The executive committee asks that general publicity be given to the date for this annual meeting on Monday, November 24th, at 4:30 p. m. at the Chamber of Commerce, and hopes that a large crowd will be present on that day. The ministers of the city will be asked to make announcement of this annual meeting from their pulpits on Sunday morning, November 23rd, and announcements will also be made Monday afternoon at the meetings of the church women over the city.

Love grows and grows and grows When the loved one is sincere, So ours has grown so very much Our hearts will burst, we fear.

We love your smile, so sweet, We love your dear, kind words, You've won our hearts in full, Not in fourths, nor halves, nor thirds.

For all you've done for us, We'll never begin to repay, But we want in part to show Our love in this little way.

Following this a handpainted friendship book was presented, having the letters "L-O-V-E" beautifully painted on the cover, and the following poem inscribed upon the initial leaf:

"This is a book of dearest love, The authors those, who write here-in, But just how much this love abides Is far beyond the power of pen.

To them you have endeared yourself By words of kindness, deeds of love, And with these lines of friendly verse They wish their love to partly prove.

A love that ties and binds the hearts Of those who know your heart, so true,

Of how so faithfully you've tried Your loving Christian duty to do, May God e'er bless all that you do, Your prayers of love and efforts, true,

"TRADES DAY" IS INAUGURATED IN BRYAN ON WEDNESDAY EACH MONTH

Thirty Bryan Merchants are Combining, Each Offering from One to Four Bargains Trades Day, Making Bargain List of More Than 90 Items Being Sold at Greatly Reduced Prices.

In line with present-day progressive movements and with the object of advertising Bryan as the best trading point in this section of Texas, this city has inaugurated a "Trades Day" to be held once a month on Wednesdays when special attractions will be offered to induce people from all over Brazos county and from adjoining counties to come to Bryan on this day and to buy seasonal, first-class goods at special bargain prices made for that day only. Over thirty local merchants have co-operated in a movement to make Trades Day a success and each of these merchants are offering from one to four items from their regular stock of goods and placing them on special sale at greatly reduced prices, making a total list of 90 items, including, for the most part, the articles that are in demand now with the buying public. It is anticipated that this bargain list will attract hundreds of people to the city on this day who will be bent on buying goods which they need.

NO DUPLICATES

The merchants are giving real bargains on this occasion, realizing that the success of the day depends upon giving the people something that will please them at the lowest price—even down to cost and in some instances below, so that they will form the habit of coming to Bryan to trade and in order to make "Trades Day" a monthly institution to be looked forward to by both the business men of Bryan and the general buying public of this whole trade territory. Each store in vying with another to make the best bargains possible to induce greater patronage at that store. Every effort is being made by the force of the Eagle Printing Company, which sponsored and is promoting Trades Day in Bryan, to see that brands of goods are not placed in competition at the different stores and that items of the same quality and kind are not duplicated by any two or more merchants in the same line of business.

The Eagle has completed arrangements with the Allen Academy, through N. B. Allen, the manager, Capt. G. W. Gainer of the military corps, and Professor Anton Ernst, director of music at Allen, for the Allen Academy cadet band to play a concert on the Main Street of Bryan between the hours of 11 a. m. to 12, noon.

The first Trades Day in Bryan will be on Wednesday, November 26, which is an opportune time for people to take advantage in the grocery items in particular for the Thanksgiving dinner. Trades Day will be advertised through the Bryan Eagle with a page advertisement, containing the list of bargains, in the Bryan Weekly Eagle on the week preceding Trades Day, and another page ad in the Bryan Daily Eagle on the Monday preceding Trades Day. The people are asked to watch for this advertisement and bargain list and take advantage of this day and make it a success in Bryan. The merchants are offering you inducements to save money on things you need.

The average of private reports issued so far indicates 10,947,000 bales ginned to November 14th, and an indicated crop of 13,050,000. To November 1st, 9,695,000 bales were ginned, and returns to the government, of that date, pointed to a yield of 12,516,000 bales.

If the government report next Friday indicates that a production of 13,100,000 bales or more, the market will likely decline, especially if ginning figures are 11,000,000 bales or larger, but if a yield of 12,900,000 or less is forecast, values are apt to advance, particularly if ginnings are 10,900,000 or less.

Meanwhile, exports from the United States continue free, thus far this week 307,000 bales against 35,000 last year, since August 1st, 2,708,000 against 2,172,000 one year ago. For the time being, the market is under the influence of the uncertainty attending next Friday's government reports as to ginnings to the 14th, inst., and especially as to the official yield forecast.

"TRADES DAY" IS INAUGURATED IN BRYAN ON WEDNESDAY EACH MONTH

Thirty Bryan Merchants are Combining, Each Offering from One to Four Bargains Trades Day, Making Bargain List of More Than 90 Items Being Sold at Greatly Reduced Prices.

In line with present-day progressive movements and with the object of advertising Bryan as the best trading point in this section of Texas, this city has inaugurated a "Trades Day" to be held once a month on Wednesdays when special attractions will be offered to induce people from all over Brazos county and from adjoining counties to come to Bryan on this day and to buy reasonable, first-class goods at special bargain prices made for that day only. Over thirty local merchants have co-operated in a movement to make Trades Day a success and each of these merchants are offering from one to four items from their regular stock of goods and placing them on special sale at greatly reduced prices, making a total list of 90 items, including, for the most part, the articles that are in demand now with the buying public. It is anticipated that this bargain list will attract hundreds of people to the city on this day who will be bent on buying goods which they need.

EDUCATION IS THEME SESSION

THREE NEW CHAPTERS OF U. D. C. WERE ORGANIZED IN TEXAS THE PAST YEAR

THIRTY-EIGHT ARE NEW

(By Associated Press)
SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 19.—The submission of the report of Mrs. Frank Harold, of Americus, Georgia, president-general, in which the educational work was stressed and the delivery of an address by Hollins Randolph, president of the Stone Monumental Association, were the principal features of today's session of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, meeting in its 31st annual convention. The recording secretary general, Mrs. Harold, said that 38 new chapters had been organized and chartered during 1924, three of these being in Texas.

DAILY COTTON LETTER

(H. and H. Beer Daily Cotton Letter, Received by A. S. McCollum, Bryan)
NEW ORLEANS, La., Nov. 19.—Pre-bureau liquidation influenced values to a low level today after having ruled somewhat higher on somewhat better cables than due. Except for picking having been interrupted in Southern Illinois, Arkansas and Oklahoma, by rains of the past week, the Washington weekly weather and crop review was favorable.

The average of private reports issued so far indicates 10,947,000 bales ginned to November 14th, and an indicated crop of 13,050,000. To November 1st, 9,695,000 bales were ginned, and returns to the government, of that date, pointed to a yield of 12,816,000 bales.

If the government report next Friday indicates that a production of 13,100,000 bales or more, the market will likely decline, especially if ginning figures are 11,000,000 bales or larger, but if a yield of 12,900,000 or less is forecast, values are apt to advance, particularly if ginnings are 10,900,000 or less.

Meanwhile, exports from the United States continue free, thus far this week 307,000 bales against 35,000 last year, since August 1st, 2,706,000 against 2,172,000 one year ago. For the time being, the market is under the influence of the uncertainty attending next Friday's government reports as to ginnings to the 14th, inst., and especially as to the official yield forecast.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MRS. WRIGHT OF COLLEGE

Mrs. J. R. Wright of College was happily surprised last evening at her home on the Campus by a small company of friends for a spend-the-evening party in celebration of her birthday. After cordial greetings and many more happy returns of the day had been extended a lovely plate of refreshments was passed, which had been brought by the friends. Those enjoying the occasion were: Mesdames H. Ness, W. E. Lewis, L. R. Benning, S. Tyler, R. G. Dunn, H. T. Holland, B. E. Howell, M. S. Huls, Jennie Yates, L. W. Britton, S. B. Brown, D. E. Aden, Misses Susie Ball, Clayton Hancock and Lena Tarke of Longview. R. Franze of Wilcox community was in town Saturday.

Birthday Party For Mrs. Buchanan

In Christian relationship a thousand nameless ties, kindred thoughts and deepest sympathies bind hearts together in a chain, the link of which form a circle that always imparts the force and deepest significance of the word friend.

The members of the Friendship and Homemakers' classes of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church have found the great truth of the following line exemplified in the life of their teacher, Mrs. Albert J. Buchanan:

"It is our joy in life to find At every turning of the road, The strong arms of a comrade, kind, To help us onward with our load."

And so, to fulfill a happy coincidence of the fact that Thursday, November 13th, was the time of the regular social meeting of the month, as well as the anniversary of Mrs. Buchanan's natal day, an unusual birthday was manifested by the members of the class in making their teacher the honoree on this occasion, and each one was happy in the thought of bestowing recognition by the presentation of gifts and many expressions of love and affection.

Miss Bella Locke and Mrs. Roy Nunn arranged for the entertainment at the home of the former on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, and in using pink and green for a decorative scheme, the rooms were lovely with ferns and flowers banked on mantle shelves and hidden away in alcoves with here and there candleabra from which pink tapers shed a rosy glow upon the scene of joy and mirth and laughter.

After the arrival of the guests various games were used for entertainment, until at the appointed time a beautiful white birthday cake decorated with "sixteen" pink candles was brought into the living room. By unanimous vote, Mrs. Buchanan was elected to accept the cake, as she was the only one present who really "looked the part" of "sixteen." Then came the usual blowing out of the candles with the making of wishes followed by the drawing of the emblems which were attached to ribbons arranged beneath the cake. The lucky ones in drawing were as follows: Miss Lillian Ferguson, the button; Miss Artie Barron, the wishbone; Miss Ethel Evans, the ring, and Miss Bess Withers, the thimble.

Then little Jess Conlee, Jr., and little Martha Jane Nunn in their dainty loveliness appeared in the doorway bringing the gifts piled high on a toy wagon beautifully decorated in pink and green. Following them came Miss Dorothy McDowell, in lovely attire, who made the presentation as follows:

"I speak in behalf of the Friendship and Homemakers' class—Our love for you is very dear. We want you then to know it, And sincerely hope we've chosen Just the best way to show it.

Love grows and grows and grows When the loved one is sincere, So ours has grown so very much Our hearts will burst, we fear.

We love your smile, so sweet, We love your dear, kind words, You've won our hearts in full, Not in fourths, nor halves, nor thirds.

For all you've done for us, We'll never begin to repay But we want in part to show Our love in this little way."

Following this a handpainted friendship book was presented, having the letters "L-O-V-E" beautifully painted on the cover, and the following poem inscribed upon the initial leaf:

"This is a book of dearest love, The authors those, who write here-in, But just how much this love abides Is far beyond the power of pen.

To them you have endeared yourself By words of kindness, deeds of love, And with these lines of friendly verse They wish their love to partly prove.

A love that ties and binds the hearts Of those who know your heart, so true,

Of how so faithfully you've tried Your loving Christian duty to do, May God e'er bless all that you do, Your prayers of love and efforts, true,

Oh! this and all that's good and just Is what they really wish for you."

Mrs. Buchanan was deeply touched by such expressions of love and the thoughtfulness of those who endeavored to bring this bit of happiness on the occasion of her birthday anniversary, and she spoke with deep feeling in the acknowledgment of the gifts and expressions of love.

After another hour of games and conversation, and the writing of good wishes in the "Friendship Book" the guests were served with hot chocolate with whipped cream and angel food cake. At a late hour "good-byes" were said, assuring the hostess that the evening had been one of pleasurable enjoyment and also wishing the honoree many happy returns of the day. The following guests were present: Misses Minnie Cahill, Laura Belle Roten, Nora Ward, Vivian Royder, Ella Plazek, Maude Brown, Mabel Zimmerman, Corrie Suber, Artie Lou Smith, Artie Barron, Adele Hall, Lillian Ferguson, Reba Dick, Lillian Moore, Evelyn Crawford, Bess Withers, Willie Belle Johnson, Lillie Locke, Mabel Steffy, Allie Locke, Mesdames T. H. Black, Mary Birdsong, Burroughs, H. C. Smith, McDuff Simpson, Harold Sanders, Louis McCullough, Eric Fletcher, Elbert Gammon, Lynn Benning, Parkerson, Sankey Park, Calloway, Roy Wilson, Harry McDowell, Johnson, Brown, Velma Graham, Stewart.

MAKE IT TWO IN ONE

The suggestion was made several years ago that the two holidays of November should be combined into one and then given general observance.

Thanksgiving day is one of the most generally observed days in the United States, marking the celebration that rendered thanks to the Creator in the early days of American colonization. Armistice Day, marking the end of the greatest conflict the world ever saw, deserves equally as general observance. But it is new and since Thanksgiving comes in the same month there has been an increasing tendency since 1918 to let the day go by default.

If Thanksgiving, which is a movable day and to change would require only a change in the presidential proclamation, could be moved up to November 11, interest in the two days would be such as to make the observance of the combined celebration virtually general throughout the United States. The longer such action is deferred the less likely it is ever to be taken.—Denton Record

LOST AMBITIONS

Where is that city-county park that we heard so much about just a few short weeks ago? Where is that Bryan playground for the children that was agitated and talked and—blew up evidently? What becomes of these worth-while things? They come and they go and that's just about the extent of it. What is the reason for the voluminous amount of "gas" that is expended only to go to waste? Does somebody merely want to get the floor, make a speech, get into the limelight for a while?

We once saw a mob trying to go into action. The mob would have carried out its potential threat while it had incentive and while it had been easily made a dominating factor, it never succeeded because it lacked the one thing that is necessary in every successful undertaking—a leader.

That's just what is the matter with most of our moves that are talked. "Talk is cheap" and most anyone is ready to back things with a "mouth" but when it comes to giving time and work and labor—"let George do it," and George is lazy.

The only way Bryan and Brazos county will ever get a city-county park or the local children will ever have the opportunity to enjoy a civic playground is for someone to take the lead, get into harness and push the thing across. Some people won't lead because they put up the false attitude that other people will think they want the publicity. Let others "holer" as long as you know you are being of service to your fellowman and your conscience doesn't trouble you. But do something. Make a noise.

Turning the matter over to some organization gets few results. Large bodies move slowly and sometimes are too heavy or too "thick" to move at all. It takes individual effort to get results as cities have found by adopting a city manager plan. Putting it up to one man to do or not to do it will get results in the long run.

Who will take the lead in one of these movements? Someone is needed and needed now. Who will undertake to get out and work for a city-county park or a playground—either one—or combine them. Sure, it takes money. Won't you see who'll contribute. How about a proposition like this: Someone take the initiative and ask the city if they will not match a sum that the leader will endeavor to raise by securing pledges—not contributions until the matter is proven—to provide the funds to start the thing. When once under way it is a simple matter to get the thing completed. Various organizations might put on local amateur entertainments, programs, carnivals, or such feature in order to raise money to give to the cause. It can be done. There's no question about that.

But who will act as leader?

ARE YOU A SAFE DRIVER?

Are you a safe driver? Every person that drives a car thinks he is, but the other fellow isn't. Ask yourself the serious question, "Am I a safe driver?" Did you know that every day there are 50 victims of autos; did you know there were over 15,000 people killed in auto accidents this past year in the United States; did you know one victim will be killed this year for every 760 autos. Will your car be "one among every 760" to mangle, crush and kill a human? Caution would prevent this great calamity. Won't you join the force to help stop this toll of needless speed? When the never-to-be-forgotten picture of a huddled, lifeless form on the pavement ever haunts the memory it is too late. Begin today.

Observing Father and Son Week is commendable, but it does not solve the question of character building in boys, our future citizens, for the other 51 weeks in the year. Yet it is better to have a thought of the lads of our land one week out of the year than never to have had any at all.

A TRIBUTE TO WOMAN

Place her among the flowers, for her as a tender plant, and she is a thing of fancy, waywardness and folly—annoyed by a dew drop, fretted by the touch of a butterfly's wing, ready to faint at the sound of a beetle or the rattling of a window pane at night, and is overpowered by the perfume of a rosebud. But let real trouble come, rouse her affections, kindle the fires of her heart, and mark her then! How "strong is her heart? Place her in the heat of the battle, give her a child, a bird or anything to protect—and see her lifting her white arms as a shield as her own blood crimsoned upon forehead, praying for her life to protect the helpless. Transplant her in the dark places of the earth, call forth energies to action and her breath becomes a healing balm, her presence a blessing. She disputes inch by inch the stalking pestilence, when man, the strong and brave, pale and frightened shrinks away. Trouble haunts her not. She wears a life of silent endurance and goes forth with less timidity than a wedding. In prosperity she is a bud full of odors, waiting but for the tide of adversity to scatter them abroad, pure gold, valuable but untainted in the furnace. In short a woman is a miracle, a mystery, the center from which radiates all the charm of human existence.—Author Unknown.

VERSICRAM

Clack, clack, clackety-clack, says the speckled hen with ruffled back. She tells the world both far and high she's added an egg to the food supply. She has no idea her duty to stir, so she preens her feathers and goes to work. While her eggs she's freely giving, she has to scratch to make a living.—Mineral Wells Index.

Clack, clack, clackety clack, goes the old Underwood, editor's back bowed over the typewriter, his copy mill grinding out copy the paper to fill. He has no idea what people will say when paper's distributed at close of day, he knows some will knock in thousands of ways—"there'll be plenty of clacks—not one word of praise. Clack, clack goes the typewriter all the day long—give people the news—that's the editor's song.

CARRYING ON!

The late lamented Lee J. Rountree was noted for his willingness and ability to pay tributes to the living, and was unanimously elected by his newspaper brethren as president of a mythical organization known as the "Flowers for the Living Club." The purpose of that club was to scatter sunshine along life's pathway, and to say the things in life that are too often left unsaid until after life's last chapter has been written and the book closed. Following Rountree's death, Texas newspaper men made the "club" almost a reality during the latter years of his life.

Memories of this mythical club were revived in The Reporter editor's breast recently when he was given the opportunity of visiting with J. Rountree's widow in her newspaper office at Bryan. We have known this most excellent lady many years, meeting her annually with her husband at the editorial conventions, and we knew that she had always been an actual helpmate in her husband's newspaper work. We knew also that she had, following Rountree's death a year or two ago, taken over the entire burden of his newspaper responsibilities as editor and manager of one of the best small-town dailies in Texas. But we had not realized until we saw her actually at work at her desk, the extent of her duties nor the earnestness of purpose with which she pursues the undertaking.

In her workshop, attired in a simple gingham dress, with her greying hair "done up" for comfort rather than for appearance, with smudges of printer's ink visible on a countenance innocent of cosmetics, Mrs. Rountree does not bear exactly the same resemblance to the strikingly handsome woman whose dress at the conventions is always a model of quiet elegance and refinement, but the handclasp with which she greets her friends is none the less hearty because of the ink on her fingers, and her manner is none the less gracious because of her workaday surroundings, nor does the noise of the presses or the insistent call of the printers for "copy" and "proof" disturb her in her endeavor to make her visitor feel welcome.

Truly, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree is a "carry-on" in the work in which her husband took such great delight. Truly she is making good and rendering a service the true value of which may not be measured in words. Truly, she is entitled to a share of those "flowers for the living" which through the efforts of her late husband have been the more generously scattered, and in memory of our friendship for him and in evidence of our appreciation of her indomitable energy and undoubted ability we pay this tribute.

Mrs. Rountree's standing in her community is epitomized in the following remark made to this writer by one of her townsmen: "Mrs. Rountree is not the brilliant editorial writer her husband was, nor is her pen so prolific, but as an organizer and business manager she is a success, while her value to the community can hardly be estimated."—John Esten Cooke, in the Rockdale Reporter.

Failure, disappointment and sorrow are bitter experiences, but Jesus Paul Richter, it was, who said, "In order to see into life, and still more to ourselves, suffering is required." "And as we grow better," says Philip Brooks, "you sweep out of the grasp of money, praise, ease, distinction; you sweep up into the necessity of truth, courage, virtue and God." Then surely he who would profit by his failure, disappointments and sorrow will "sweep up into the necessity of truth, courage, virtue and God."

KINGS HIGHWAY

(Special to Bryan Daily Eagle)

KINGS HIGHWAY. Nov. 18.—If that belated "norther" doesn't hurry, most of the sweaters in the Kings Highway school will be worn out just being carried around. We tried leaving them home to tempt the weather, but it didn't work.

The senior basket ball team is training and have great hopes of taking their places with other Brazos county teams. The team has been greatly augmented by the advent of Johnny, Rufus and Evie Manior, who have moved into this community from Henry Prairie.

The Literary Society was organized with Sybil Lewis president, Adolph Kopetsky, vice president; George Anderson, secretary; Leonard Bush, treasurer; Willie Novasod, sergeant of arms; Principal Connor, reporter; Louise Carter, critic.

Prof. and Mrs. P. S. Mangum of Edge spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Mangis. Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Orr of Edge joined them in the afternoon for a tramp in the woods, feasting on persimmons, black haws and the scenery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Connor of Marquez, C. D., Jr., and Lucile, motored down to Kings Highway Sunday to visit the principal of the school, Haell E. Connor.

Leonard Holliday and Roland Hudspeth of Tabor were visitors in this community Sunday.

Miss Oula Henry visited her home in Tabor Sunday but returned in time to help with the B. Y. P. U. program at Edge.

TABOR'S SEWING AND CANNING CLUB MET ON MONDAY

(Special to Bryan Daily Eagle)

TABOR. Nov. 18.—The sewing and canning club of Tabor high school held their first meeting Monday afternoon, November 10, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Colson. Miss Laura Belle Roten gave instruction in baking and sewing, twenty-two girls being present. Two cakes were baked and eaten by the girls who enjoyed them very much. The club girls are preparing, at a date which will be announced later, to serve lunch to the club boys and trustees of this community. The next meeting is to be held the 4th Monday in November. A good time and a large attendance is expected.

WELFARE CLUB TABOR WAS TO HAVE HELD A MEETING LAST NIGHT

(From Saturday's Daily)

Owing to threatening weather, about five or six adults and twelve or fifteen children gathered at the Tabor school house on Friday night for the regular meeting of the Tabor Welfare Club. After waiting for several minutes for the arrival of others who failed to get there, it was decided that the attendants adjourn to the fine farm home of Charley Locke and enjoy the radio concert on his new super-heterodyne radio set. During the course of a fine concert on the radio, a heavy wind arose and the norther began which broke up the party at an early hour, though all would have liked to have "listened in" longer. Those from Bryan making the trip to Tabor were: County Agent C. L. Beason, Dewey Carnes and H. D. Cuykendall of the Bryan Eagle.

GEORGE HADLEY AND M. E. WALLACE GIVEN RECOGNITION K. OF P.

M. E. Wallace has received a commission from Charles E. Baughman, Grand Chancellor for the State of Texas, Knights of Pythias, naming him special deputy grand chancellor of the grand domain of Texas, and George E. Hadley has received similar certificate stating that he is made a district deputy grand chancellor for District No. 16, K. of P. These signal honors come, no doubt, from the splendid work accomplished by these two Pythians in the recent Armistice Day celebration in Bryan. It had been stated on a former occasion that no K. of P. would be given special position unless they merited same by some deed or special work accomplished.

WATTHUBER NO. 1 DRILLING NOW IN GOOD FORMATIONS

(From Saturday's Daily)

Latest news from Henry Willard of Abilene by phone to Jno. C. Vick reports one of the several wells recently started there broke in a gasser this week of six to eight million feet and spraying oil. The discovery well is again producing and the oil is being used as fuel on the wells drilling. This is welcome news to those having holdings out there.

Mr. Willard is a member of the directorate and geologist of the Bryan Petroleum Company, and expects to be in Bryan this coming week to watch the formations of the Watthuber No. 1, drilling below College. This well is at a most interesting stage and has had a heavy gas pressure for about two weeks, and L. L. (Butch) Holden, the driller, reports three gas bearing formations and two showings of oil. This week they went through 32 feet of sandy shale that the chemist department at College reports is carrying oil. However, it is not in quantities to produce, is the opinion of Mr. Holden, but as all formations have shown structural conditions, he has just reason to believe that a true sand that will produce is within this structure. They are now drilling in heavy gumbo at 2,027 feet. All of the workmen made a deal this week for holdings which is evidence of their faith in the well.

LIST OF PREMIUM WINNERS AT THE MILLICAN ANNUAL COMMUNITY FAIR

MILLICAN. Nov. 1.—Millican held their third annual community fair Thursday. Although the prospects had not been encouraging because of poor crops, and bad conditions in general, the fair was pronounced a success by all who attended. The list of the premium winners, given below, shows a fair representation of the exhibits.

A new feature of great interest this year was the splendid school exhibit. This included geographic exhibits representing pioneer, Mexican, Indian and Alaskan scenes, posters, note-books and drawings by the lower grade children; a book of true stories about the War written by pupils; a fine exhibit by the biology class, and an attractive exhibit of sewing and cooking by the home economics girls. These exhibits demonstrate, and the records bear out, that the Millican school is doing work on a par with the larger, better equipped schools of the county. The prize on the school exhibit was divided between the biology and home economics exhibits.

Another new feature of interest was an exhibit of old relics. About fifty articles were exhibited, among them a spinning-wheel over 200 years old, now owned by Geo. Dunham; a pair of wooden shoes made in Holland in 1749, the property of Mrs. M. C. Meredith; a number of swords, bayonets and guns used in the Civil War; a copy of the Millican News published July 18, 1890, and many other interesting relics dating back to the early days of Millican. CALDWELL TIED WITH BELTON HIGH 7 TO 7

CALDWELL, Nov. 15.—Although roundly outplayed, the Belton Tigers tied the Caldwell Hornets here Friday, 7 to 7. The Hornets' ability to complete forward passes accounted for their touchdown, Muller scoring in the first quarter. Late in the third quarter Sutherland of Belton broke through Caldwell's line and ran 83 yards for a touchdown. Caldwell registered 12 first downs to 7 for Belton. Caldwell also completed five out of 10 attempted forward passes.

JOHN HICKS' BARN WAS BURNED MONDAY NIGHT

The fire alarm sounded at about 8:20 o'clock on last night and both trucks answered a call to the Buchanan addition on the east side where the barn of John Hicks was in flames, having been set on fire by some unknown cause. The trucks were unable to lay hose on account of the scene of the fire being too far from a fire hydrant and the barn was too far gone to use chemicals with any hope of success. The firemen, however, remained on the ground until all danger of the fire spreading to adjoining buildings had been removed, said Clarence Hamilton, fire truck driver, who furnished the data. The loss is estimated at in the neighborhood of $500.

BENCHLEY BUDGE!

(Special to Bryan Daily Eagle)

BENCHLEY. Nov. 18.—A cold norther reached here Friday night, but it failed to bring the long-needed rain.

Dr. R. H. Harrison of Bryan was in our midst one day last week. Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Peyton of Bremond spent Sunday here with home-folks.

Dave Williams and family of Moscow visited Mrs. Williams' father, Iral Merka, this week-end.

Mr. Mays and Bethel Castala motored to Caldwell Sunday.

Mrs. Bill Peyton and baby, and sister, Miss Lila Moss, of Sutton made a flying trip here Wednesday. Sheriff W. E. Thompson of Franklin was in our midst Sunday and raided a negro house occupied by Charlie Goodie on the Riley Sadberry (colored) farm near Benchley and succeeded in capturing a barrel of mash and a quart and a half of corn whisky. However, he has still, but was cooking mash on the stove. Mr. Thompson was accompanied by Deputy John Peyton of Benchley and a deputy from Franklin. Goodie was arrested and placed in the county jail.

Mr. and Mrs. John Strang, Waco and Wm. H. Willis motored to Bryan Saturday night and spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Willis, parents of Wm. H. Willis.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of grippe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseous Calomel tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—adv.

SADDLE STOLEN YEAR AGO FOUND TUESDAY

(From Friday's Daily).

Augh Hutchins, negro, is in jail here charged with petty theft in connection with the stealing of a saddle horse belonging to Ed Hill who lives east of Bryan. The theft is said to have occurred about a year ago. The horse had been tied in a back street and the saddle was taken off the horse and was not seen again until located Tuesday evening by local officers, said Constable H. T. Wheelers.

The saddle was found on the farm of William Harrison, another negro, who lives about 3 miles south of town. Hutchins worked for Harrison. His home is said to be Mississippi, but he has been working around Bryan for a year or more. The officers waited until he came for his horse and placed the negro, Hutchins, under arrest.

STATE AND COUNTY CASH FOR SCHOOLS BEEN USED

County Superintendent D. J. McDonald reports that the state and county money for school purposes has been exhausted and that registered vouchers will be issued in the future, these vouchers to be cashed in the order of their registration numbers when funds are again available.

Weak Nervous

"I was weak and nervous and run-down," writes Mrs. Edith Sellers, of 466 N. 21st St., East St. Louis, Ill. "I couldn't sleep nights, I was so restless. I felt tired and not in condition to do my work. I would have such pains in my stomach that I was afraid I would get down in bed. My mother came to see me and suggested that I use

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

I felt better after my first bottle. I had a better appetite. It seemed to strengthen and build me up. I am so glad to recommend Cardui for what it did for me. I haven't needed any medicine since I took Cardui, and I am feeling fine."

Nervousness, restlessness, sleeplessness—these symptoms so often are the result of a weak, run-down condition, and may develop more seriously if not treated in time.

If you are nervous and run-down, or suffering from some womanly weakness, take Cardui.

MAKE IT TWO IN ONE

The suggestion was made several years ago that the two holidays—November and December—be combined into one and then given general observance.

Thanksgiving day is one of the most generally observed days in the United States, marking the celebration that rendered thanks to the Creator in the early days of American colonization. Armistice Day, marking the end of the greatest conflict the world ever saw, deserves equally as general observance. But it is new and since Thanksgiving comes in the same month there has been an increasing tendency since 1918 to let the day go by default. If Thanksgiving, which is a movable day and to change would require only a change in the presidential proclamation, could be moved up to November 11, interest in the two days would be such as to make the observance of the combined celebration virtually general throughout the United States. The longer such action is deferred the less likely it is ever to be taken.—Denton Record

Where is that city-county park that we heard so much about just a few short weeks ago? Where is that Bryan playground for the children that was agitated and talk and—blew up evidently? What becomes of these worth-while things? They come and they go and that's just about the extent of it. What is the reason for the voluminous amount of "gas" that is expended only to go to waste? Does somebody merely want to get the floor, make a speech, get into the limelight for a while?

We once saw a mob trying to go into action. The mob would have carried out its potential threat while it had incentive and could have been easily made a dominating factor, it never succeeded because it lacked the one thing that is necessary in every successful undertaking—a leader.

That's just what is the matter with most of our moves that are talked. "Talk is cheap" and most anyone is ready to back things with "talk" but when it comes to giving time and work and labor—"let George do it," and George is lazy.

The only way Bryan and Brazos county will ever get a city-county park or the local children will ever have the opportunity to enjoy a city playground is for someone to take the lead, get into harness and push the thing across. Some people won't lead because they put up the false attitude that other people will think they want the publicity. Let others "holler" as long as you know you are being of service to your fellowman and your conscience doesn't trouble you. But do something. Make a noise.

Turning the matter over to some organization gets a few results. Large bodies move slowly and sometimes are too heavy or too "thick" to move at all. It takes individual effort to get results as cities have found by adopting a city manager plan. Putting it up to one man to do or not to do it will get results in the long run.

Who will take the lead in one of these movements?

Someone is needed and needed now. Who will undertake to get out and work for a city-county park or a playground—either one—or combine them. Sure, it takes money. Won't you see who'll contribute. How about a proposition like this: Someone take the initiative and ask the city if they will not match a sum that the leader will endeavor to raise by securing pledges—not contributions until the matter is proven—to provide the funds to start the thing. When once under way it is a simple matter to get the thing completed. Various organizations might put on local amateur entertainments, programs, carnivals, or such feature in order to raise money to give to the cause. It can be done. There's no question about that.

But who will act as leader?

ARE YOU A SAFE DRIVER?

Are you a safe driver? Every person that drives a car thinks he is, but the other fellow isn't. Ask yourself the serious question, "Am I a safe driver?" Did you know that every day there are 50 victims of autos; did you know there were over 15,000 people killed in auto accidents this past year in the United States; did you know one victim will be killed this year for every 760 autos. Will your car be "one among every 760" to manage, crash and kill a human? Caution would prevent this great calamity. Won't you join the force to help stop this toll of needless speed? When the never-to-be-forgotten picture of a huddled, lifeless form on the pavement ever haunts the memory it is too late. Begin today.

Observing Father and Son Week is commendable, but it does not solve the question of character building in boys, our future citizens for the other 51 weeks in the year. Yet it is better to have a thought of the lads of our land one week out of the year than never to have had any at all.

A TRIBUTE TO WOMAN

Place her among the flowers, for her as a tender plant, and she is a thing of fancy, waywardness and folly—annoyed by a dew drop, fretted by the touch of a butterfly's wing, ready to faint at the sound of a beetle or the rattling of a window pane at night, and is overpowered by the perfume of a rosebud. But let real trouble come, rouse her affections, kindle the fires of her heart, and mark her then! How long is her heart? Place her in the heat of the battle, give her a child, a bird or anything to protect—and see her lifting her white arms as a shield as her own blood crimsoned up forehead, praying for her life to protect the helpless. Transplant her in the dark places of the earth, call forth energies to action and her breath becomes a healing balm, her presence a blessing. She disputes inch by inch the stalking pestilence, when man, the strong and brave, pale and frightened shrinks away. Trouble haunts her not. She wears a life of silent endurance and goes forth with less timidity than a war wedding. In prosperity she is a bud full of odors, waiting but for the tide of adversity to scatter them abroad, pure gold, valuable but untended in the furnace. In short a woman is a miracle, a mystery, the center from which radiates all the charm of human existence.—Author Unknown.

VERSIGRAM

Clack, clack, clackety-clack, says the speckled hen with ruffled back. She tells the egg to bask far and high she's added an egg to the food supply. She has no idea her duty to stir, so she greases her feathers and goes to work. While her eggs she's freely giving, she has to scratch to make a living.—Mira Wells Index.

Clack, clack, clackety clack, goes the Old Underwood, editor's back bowed over the typewriter, his copy mill grinding out copy the paper to fill. He has no idea what people will say when paper's distributed at close of day, he knows some will knock in thousands of ways—there'll be plenty of kicks—not one word of praise. Clack, clack goes the typewriter all the day long—give people the news—that's the editor's song.

CARRYING ON!

The late lamented Lee J. Rountree was noted for his willingness and ability to pay tributes to the living, and was unanimously elected by his newspaper brethren as president of a mythical organization known as the "Flowers for the Living Club." The purpose of that club was to scatter sunshine along life's pathway, and to say the things in life that are too often left unsaid until after life's last chapter has been written and the book closed. Following Rountree's lead, Texas newspaper men made the "club" almost a reality during the latter years of his life.

Memories of this mythical club were revived in The Reporter editor's breast recently when he was given the opportunity of visiting Lee J. Rountree's widow in her newspaper office at Bryan. We have known this most excellent lady many years, meeting her annually with her husband at the editorial conventions, and we knew that she had always been an actual helpmeet in her husband's newspaper work. We knew also that she had, following Mr. Rountree's death a year or two ago, taken over the entire burden of his newspaper responsibilities as editor and manager of one of the best small-town dailies in Texas. But we had not realized until we saw her actually at work at her desk, the extent of her duties nor the earnestness of purpose with which she pursues the undertaking.

In her workshop, attired in a simple gingham dress, with her greying hair "done up" for comfort rather than for appearance, with smudges of printer's ink visible on a countenance innocent of cosmetics, Mrs. Rountree does not bear exactly the same resemblance to the strikingly handsome woman whose dress at the conventions is always a model of quiet elegance and refinement, but the handclasp with which she greets her friends is none the less hearty because of the ink on her fingers, and her manner is none the less gracious because of her workaday surroundings, nor does the noise of the presses or the insistent call of the printers for "copy" and "proof" disturb her in her endeavor to make her visitor feel welcome.

Truly, Mrs. Lee J. Rountree is "carrying on" in the work in which her husband took such great delight. Truly is she making good and rendering a service the true value of which may not be measured in words. Truly, she is entitled to a share of those "flowers for the living" which through the efforts of her late husband have been the more generously scattered, and in memory of our friendship for him and in evidence of our appreciation of her indomitable energy and undoubted ability we pay this tribute.

Mrs. Rountree's standing in her community is epitomized in the following remark made to this writer by one of her townsmen: "Mrs. Rountree is not the brilliant editorial writer her husband was, nor is her pen so prolific, but as an organizer and business manager she is a success, while her value to the community can hardly be estimated."—John Esten Cooke, in the Rockwell Reporter.

Failure, disappointment and sorrow are bitter experiences, but Jesus, Paul Richter, it was, who said, "I order to see into life, and still more to ourselves, suffering is required." "And as we grow better," says Philip Brooks, "you sweep up out of the grasp of money, praise, ease, distinction; you sweep up into the necessity of truth, courage, virtue and God." Then surely he who would profit by his failure, disappointments and sorrow will "sweep up" into the necessity of truth, courage, virtue and God.

KINGS HIGHWAY

(Special to Bryan Daily Eagle)

KINGS HIGHWAY, Nov. 18.—If that belated "norther" doesn't hurry, most of the sweaters in the Kings Highway school will be worn out just being carried around. We tried leaving them home to tempt the weather, but it didn't work.

The senior basket ball team is in training and have great hopes of taking their places with other Brazos county teams. The team has been greatly augmented by the advent of Johnny, Rufus and Evie Manior, who have moved into this community from Henry Prairie.

The Literary Society was organized with Sybil Lewis president, Adolph Kopetsky, vice president; George Anderson, secretary; Leonard Bush, treasurer; Willie Novasas, sergeant of arms; Principal Connor, sponsor; Louise Carter, critic.

Prof. and Mrs. P. S. Mangum of Edge spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Mangis. Mr. and Mrs. Ollie Orr of Edge joined them in the afternoon for a tramp in the woods, feasting on persimmons, black haws and the scenery.

Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Connor, motored down to Kings Highway Sunday to visit the principal of the school, Haell E. Connor.

Leonard Holliday and Roland Hudspeth of Tabor were visitors in this community Sunday.

Miss Ola Henry visited her home in Tabor Sunday but returned in time to help with the B. Y. P. U. program at Edge.

TABOR'S SEWING AND CANNING CLUB MET ON MONDAY

(Special to Bryan Daily Eagle)

TABOR, Nov. 18.—The sewing and canning club of Tabor high school held their first meeting Monday afternoon, November 10, at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Colson. Miss Laura Belle Roten gave instruction in baking and sewing, twenty-two girls being present. Two cakes were baked and eaten by the girls who enjoyed them very much. The club girls are preparing, at a date which will be announced later, to serve lunch to the club boys and trustees of this community. The next meeting is to be held the 4th Monday in November. A good time and a large attendance is expected.

WELFARE CLUB TABOR WAS TO HAVE HELD A MEETING LAST NIGHT

(From Saturday's Daily)

Owing to threatening weather, about five or six adults and twelve or fifteen children gathered at the Tabor school house on Friday night for the regular meeting of the Tabor Welfare Club. After waiting for several minutes for the arrival of others who failed to get there, it was decided that the attendants adjourn to the fine farm home of Charles Locke and enjoy the radio concert on his new super-heterodyne radio set. During the course of a fine concert on the radio, a heavy wind arose and the norther began which broke up the party at an early hour, though all would have liked to have "listened in" longer. Those from Bryan making the trip to Tabor were: County Agent C. L. Beason, Dewey Carnes and H. D. Cuykendall of the Bryan Eagle.

GEORGE HADLEY AND M. E. WALLACE GIVEN RECOGNITION K. OF P.

M. E. Wallace has received a commission from Charles E. Baughman, Grand Chancellor for the State of Texas, Knights of Pythias, naming him special deputy grand chancellor of the grand domain of Texas, and George E. Hadley has received similar certificate stating that he is made a district deputy grand chancellor for District No. 16, K. of P. These signal honors come, no doubt, from the splendid work accomplished by these two Pythians in the recent Armistice Day celebration in Bryan. It had been stated on a former occasion that no K. of P. would be given special position unless they merited same by some deed or special work accomplished.

WATTHUBER NO. 1 DRILLING NOW IN GOOD FORMATIONS

(From Saturday's Daily)

Latest news from Henry Willard of Abilene by phone to Jno. C. Vick reports one of the several wells recently started there broke in a gasser this week of six to eight million feet and spraying oil. The discovery well is again producing and the oil is being used as fuel on the wells drilling. This is welcome news to those having holdings out there.

Mr. Willard is a member of the directorate and geologist of the Bryan Petroleum Company, and expects to be in Bryan this coming week to watch the formations of the Watthuber No. 1, drilling below College. This well is at a most interesting stage and has had a heavy gas pressure for about two weeks, and L. L. (Butch) Holden, the driller, reports three gas bearing formations and two showings of oil. This week they went through 32 feet of sandy shale that the chemists department at College reports as carrying oil. However, it is not in quantities to produce, the opinion of Mr. Holden, but as all formations have shown structural conditions, he has just reason to believe that a true sand that will produce is within this structure. They are now drilling in heavy gumbo at 2,027 feet. All of the workmen made a deal this week for holdings which is evidence of their faith in the well.

LIST OF PREMIUM WINNERS AT THE MILLICAN ANNUAL COMMUNITY FAIR

MILLICAN, Nov. 1.—Millican held her third annual community fair Thursday. Although the prospects had not been encouraging because of poor crops, and bad conditions in general, the fair was pronounced a success by all who attended. The list of the premium winners, given below, shows a fair representation of the exhibits.

A new feature of great interest this year was the splendid school exhibit. This included geographic exhibits representing pioneer, Mexican, Indian and Alaskan scenes, posters note-books and drawings by the lower grade children; a book of true stories about the War written by pupils; a fine exhibit by the biology class, and an attractive exhibit of sewing and cooking by the home economics girls. These exhibits demonstrate, and the records bear out, that the Millican school is doing work on a par with the larger, better equipped schools of the county. The prize on the school exhibit was divided between the biology and home economics exhibits.

Another new feature of interest was an exhibit of old relics. About fifty articles were exhibited, among them a spinning-wheel over 200 years old, now owned by Geo. Dunlap; a pair of wooden shoes made in Holland in 1749, the property of Mrs. M. C. Meredith; a number of swords, bayonets and guns used in the Civil War; a copy of the Millican News published July 18, 1890, and many other interesting relics dating back to the early days of Millican. An extra good rodeo with many bad animals and good riders furnished entertainment in the afternoon.

CALDWELL TIED WITH BELTON HIGH 7 TO 7

CALDWELL, Nov. 15.—Although roundly outplayed, the Belton Tigers tied the Caldwell Hornets here Friday, 7 to 7. The Hornets' ability to complete forward passes accounted for their touchdown, Muller scoring in the first quarter. Late in the third quarter Sutherland of Belton broke through Caldwell's line and ran 83 yards for a touchdown. Caldwell registered 12 first downs to 7 for Belton. Caldwell also completed five out of 10 attempted forward passes.

JOHN HICKS' BARN WAS BURNED MONDAY NIGHT

The fire alarm sounded at about 8:20 o'clock on last night and both trucks answered a call to the Buchanan addition on the east side where the barn owned by John Hicks was in flames, having been set on fire by some unknown cause. The trucks were unable to lay hose on account of the scene of the fire being too far from a fire hydrant and the barn was too far gone to use chemicals with any hope of success. The firemen, however, remained on the ground until all danger of the fire spreading to adjoining buildings had been removed, said Clarence Hamilton, fire truck driver, who furnished the data. The loss is estimated at in the neighborhood of $500.

BENCHLEY BUDGE

(Special to Bryan Daily Eagle)
BENCHLEY, Nov. 18.—A cold norther reached here Friday night but it failed to bring the long-needed rain.

Dave Williams and family of Moscow visited Mrs. Williams' father in law Merka, this week-end.

HOW DOCTORS TREAT COLDS AND THE FLU

To break up a cold over night or to cut short an attack of gripe, influenza or sore throat, physicians and druggists are now recommending Calotabs, the nauseless Calomel tablet, that is purified from dangerous and sickening effects. Those who have tried it say that it acts like magic, by far more effective and certain than the old style calomel, heretofore recommended by physicians.

One or two Calotabs at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. No salts, no nausea nor the slightest interference with eating, work or pleasures. Next morning your cold has vanished and your system feels refreshed and purified. Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price ten cents for the vest-pocket size; thirty-five cents for the large family package. Recommended and guaranteed by druggists. Your money back if you are not delighted.—adv.

SADDLE STOLEN YEAR AGO FOUND TUESDAY

Augh Hutchins, negro, is in jail here charged with petty theft in connection with the stealing of a saddle horse belonging to Ed Hill who lives east of Bryan. The theft is said to have occurred about a year ago. The horse had been taken in a back street and the saddle was taken off the horse and was not seen again until located Tuesday evening by local officers, said Constable H. T. Wheelless.

The saddle was found on the farm of William Harrison, another negro, who lives about 3 miles south of town. Hutchins worked for Harrison. His home is said to be Mississippi, but he has been working around Bryan for a year or more. The officers waited until he came for his horse and placed the negro, Hutchins, under arrest.

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPARTMENT

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

Brazos Corn Production.

H. H. Schultz, statistician in Texas for the Bureau of Crop Estimates of the United States Department of Agriculture, states that the average production of corn per acre in Texas this year is 18 bushels, the total production being 79,232,000 bushels as against the five-year average of 132,000,000 bushels. The club boys in Brazos county, thus far, report a little better than 45 bushels per acre, or nearly three times the average for the state. If all who planted corn in Brazos county had done as well as these boys, the corn yield in the county would have been increased a million bushels, an amount equal to more than a million dollars. Have the club boys done the impossible or impracticable thing? Bud and Ezra Wilson, two good farmers of the Tabor community, have had difficulty in finding places to house the large crops of corn they have made this year. What is the matter with our corn production, any way? Is it altogether the seasons?

Tony Varisco, Italian Farmer.

The wonderful entertainment given by Tony Varisco to his many friends, honoring the marriage of his son, deserves more than passing notice. The great feast, beginning Saturday night at six o'clock and continuing throughout the night and all day Sunday, is characteristic of the big way Mr. Varisco does things. As this big-hearted farmer was entertaining his hundreds of friends in such a hospitable manner, one could not but reflect that only seventeen years ago this farmer-host to hundreds, landed in America with only a five-cent piece in his pocket. Today he has one of the finest farms in all Texas, and his standing as a man can be no better attested to than in the language of his American neighbor who said, "I have had dealings with Tony for 12 years and have always found him as straight as a string." What a wonderful place is America, in Brazos county Texas!

A Lesson on Poultry.

There was no greater improvement in any part of the Millican community fair this year over previous years than was observed in the poultry exhibit, judged by V. R. Glazener, superintendent of the A. and M. Poultry Farm. Mr. Glazener made his judging an educational exercise in that he pointed out not only the reasons for his placings but also offered most helpful suggestions on the principles underlying successful poultry raising. The many questions asked Mr. Glazener were evidence of the interest his splendid talk had aroused, and the readiness in which the answers came was indicative of his thorough knowledge of poultry husbandry.

Fertilizing the Soil.

The Semi-Weekly Farm News quotes J. C. Primmore of the Southern Fertilizer Association, as saying during the soil improvement campaign now on in East Texas, "The big problem before the farmer at present is in doing things that must be done before fertilizing will yield a profit and deciding the right kind and quantity of fertilizer to use." The use of fertilizer has gotten a "black eye" many a time when the suggestions given by Mr. Primmore had never been considered or put into practice. Among these would be, of course, preparation of land turning under green crops, legumes, etc., and proper cultivation.

Millican Club Election.

The Millican club boys and girls have closed up their year's work, one of the most successful they have ever had, and have re-organized with the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: Miss Lilian Mills, president (re-elected); Miss Janey Ward, secretary (re-elected); Walter Craig, vice-president; Miss Doris Simpson, assistant secretary; Miss Elsie Mills, reporter; Guy Curd, yell leader (re-elected); Mrs. Vada Simpson, adult club leader (re-elected). With this enthusiastic bunch of officers, all with awake bunch of officers, all with enthusiasm for club work, and with Professor McCroary, principal of the Millican school, heartily in sympathy with club activities, we predict for the Millican club a year of high achievement. Lookout, other clubs of the county, "The camels are coming."

Tabor Shows Lack of Interest.

The county agent turned down two invitations last Friday night to attend meetings, one at Wellborn and the other at Edge, in order to meet with the Tabor boys and girls at the installation of their new officers for the coming club year, only to find that some neighborhood "frolie" had attracted the boys and girls away from their own announced meeting. Let's call things by their right names. Such lack of interest will never win for the Tabor boys and girls honors which they have heretofore enjoyed, and for which the community has received the widest publicity.

Brazos County and Turkey.

It is said that Texas furnishes one-tenth of the turkeys used for Thanksgiving dinners throughout the United States and it should also be remembered that Brazos county is one of the foremost turkey counties of Texas, and the industry is only in its infancy. The great need is for the raisers to become better acquainted with the essentials of success, prime of which is organization.

Mrs. Franze's Poultry Record.

Mrs. R. Franze of the Kurten community has clearly demonstrated what is possible to accomplish in the poultry industry by any one who will stay on the job and follow safe and sound principles. For a number of years Mrs. Franze has been breeding Barred Rocks, but only day.

three or four years ago, through assistance given by the Extension Service, did she begin the breed for egg production along with type and color of birds. The results from her close attention to her poultry have been most gratifying, and should lend encouragement to others interested. Mrs. Franze's report follows:

PAUL FREEMAN OF THE WESTERN PUBLIC SERVICE SEEKS PLACE

(From Tuesday's Daily)
Paul Freeman, division superintendent of the Western Public Service Company, with headquarters at Navasota, was in the city on Friday in conference with S. W. Jackson, one of the owners of the Madisonville electric plant, with a view of buying the plant.

The Western Public Service Company, owning about seventy-five utilities in various parts of the country, including properties in Navasota, Sour Lake, Somerville, Hempstead, Calvert, Remond, Franklin, Hearne, Bryan, Caldwell, and Kosse, Texas, contemplate constructing a high voltage transmission line from Navasota to Madisonville through Anderson, Singleton, Bedias, Shiro, Iola, Roan's Prairie, and Richards. The construction of the line from Navasota to Anderson is now under way.

Many Transmission Lines.
W. J. McNally, an auditor for the company, and R. E. Thompson, consulting engineer, were in the city Monday and Tuesday, making a survey of the property in detail. Mr. Freeman advises that this company has constructed a large number of transmission lines to connect their smaller properties in various states.

A transmission line has been constructed from their large central station at Calvert, connecting Franklin, Remond and Kosse, with the Calvert plant.

Reducing the Cost.

A transmission line has just been completed from Summerville to Caldwell through Lyons, connecting this group and this line will be extended to Navasota or Bryan in the near future to a central power station.

A group of a number of towns to be supplied with electricity from one large central power plant is being accomplished by one of the larger operating companies in order to materially reduce the cost of electricity for all purposes in the smaller towns, and in addition to this to supply them with adequate power for all industries that might wish to avail themselves of electric power which when furnished at an attractive rate is the cheapest and best power in use today.—Madisonville Meteor.

PROFESSOR HALEY ENTERTAINED LIONS AT MEETING TODAY

(From Tuesday's Daily)
The program for the Lions Club meeting today at the Episcopal parish dining room was in charge of Jess Hensarling. Following the dinner hour and songs, a feature of which hour was the fun at the expense of "Daddy" Jess Cook, the visitors were introduced. Mrs. M. R. Bentley, president of the West Side Parent-Teachers' Association, was present as a guest and made a short humorous talk and closed with a serious expression of her gratitude and appreciation for the many things that the club had done for Bryan and particularly its school system, and predicting a great future for the Club which is giving real service.

Rev. L. Guy Ament, pastor of the Christian church, then introduced after a short and witty talk. Rev. Al B. Nelson, the evangelist who has just closed a two weeks' series of meetings at this church, who spoke in a humorous vein and yet left some good sound thoughts in the minds of his hearers. Then the meeting was turned over to Professor A. L. Haley, the evangelist singer, who is a past master in the art of entertaining, having been with Chautauque circuits for a number of years. Rev. Ament introduced him as "a preacher and a trickster." He certainly entertained the Lions and Lionesses and visitors present for about 15 minutes, both his sleight-of-hand and witty conversation accompanying his program.

Next Week's Meeting.
The next meeting of the Lions on next Tuesday, according to announcement of President C. A. Searcy, will be devoted to a complete and thorough discussion, from all viewpoints, of the proposition of the sale of the city municipal plant as regards the proposal recently made by the Western Public Service Company and rejected by the City of Bryan.

Present were: Mrs. M. R. Bentley, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Parks, H. H. Young, Theo. H. Thomsen, L. L. Stephens, M. E. Cox, T. A. Munson, J. Coulter Smith, Pat Newton, E. V. Spence, Lamar Jones, Wm. N. GEORGE STEPHAN AND JUDGE H. O. FERGUSON BACK FROM MEETING

(From Tuesday's Daily)
Geo. Stephan and Judge H. O. Ferguson returned last night from a week spent at the National Bottlers' Convention at Louisville, Kentucky. It was the largest and most successful gathering of this body ever held. On Saturday two special trains ran down to the Mammoth Cave, and in an overloaded boat next to theirs, in Echo river, which runs through the cave, the boat was capsized and one was drowned. The body was recovered. Another was lost and the body had not been found when the party left.

MRS. SIMS HONORED ON BIRTHDAY BY LOVE GIFTS

A few friends of Mrs. M. W. Sims who make it a pleasant custom of remembering annually the birthday of the one who has been so dear to them through the years and who always surprise her with a joyful gathering together for reminiscence and pleasure, met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Tyler Haswell in honor of the day. Mrs. Sims was overjoyed with the loving demonstration given on her birthday, and accepted with appreciation the dainty love gifts from their hands. A refreshment plate of frozen fruit cream, cake and salted nuts was passed during the evening. Those thus informally coming together to again assure Mrs. Sims of their love and appreciation were: Mrs. Tyler Haswell, Mrs. J. A. McQueen, Mrs. R. S. Webb, Mrs. J. T. Hanway, Mrs. Albert Buchanan.

REV. BULLOCK PASSES AWAY SUNDAY

The passing of Rev. J. M. Bullock at the family home in Bryan Sunday afternoon, November 16th, at 6:30 o'clock took from earth one of God's noblemen, and sadness is in the hearts of the family and a host of friends who knew and loved him. For many months past Rev. Bullock has been confined to his home, enfeebled by a slight stroke of apoplexy, but was able to see and enjoy his friends, and always bright, cheerful and hopeful. The light of that Faith which had upheld and led him all through life still shone in his eyes, and still brought peace and comfort to his declining days. A second stroke came, however, late Saturday afternoon, and his life ebbed slowly away, until death came at the hour above stated. Medical skill, love and prayers did their best to keep him, but they were unavailing. Death won, and his family and friends mourn today the loss of a kind neighbor, loyal advocate of the highest and best in life, and a high priest in friendship's holy temple, a patriot, a Christian gentleman.

MILICAN MAN WAS BURNED WHEN FIRE DESTROYED HIS HOME

MILICAN, Nov. 13.—A farm house four miles south of Millican, belonging to W. L. Steel of Navasota, was destroyed by fire. L. L. Mr. Dixon was carried to Navasota for treatment. He will recover. The loss will exceed $4,000.

WILL CONLEE HOME IS DAMAGED BY FIRE WATER AND CHEMICALS

(From Monday's Daily)
The fire alarm sounded about 10 o'clock this morning and a sent both fire trucks to the Will Conlee home in the southwestern part of the city near the residence of Mrs. R. R. Knowles. A fire was found to be burning around the flue which leads to the belief that a defective flue caused the blaze. About 1,000 feet of hose was laid by the firemen from a hydrant two blocks distant. Chemicals and water both were used. An unofficial estimate places the fire loss at around $100 or more with a loss from water and chemicals at fully as much more.

Deceased is survived by his aged widow, three sons and four daughters, as follows: Rev. Charles E. Bullock of Hearne; Albert Bullock, Palacios; J. Marshall Bullock, Bryan; Mrs. J. W. Wiley, Mrs. D. D. Jolly, Mrs. J. Sidney Smith, Bryan; Mrs. Herbert Crenshaw, Ft. Worth; Also by three brothers: Rev. Nathan B. Bullock, San Angelo; John Bullock, Snyder; J. E. Bullock, Stee; Hollow.

The funeral cortege left the family home on South College avenue this afternoon at 2 o'clock, the beautiful services being conducted at Steep Hollow church at 3 o'clock by Dr. John A. Held, pastor of the First Baptist church of this city, assisted by Rev. J. J. Pipkin, Brazos county associational missionary. Interment was made in the Steep Hollow cemetery, while hundreds of loving friends stood with bowed heads and saddened hearts. A wealth of fragrant flowers, expressions of love from friends here and over the state, covered the new-made mound.

FATHER MRS. BERNARD POS CELEBRATED 90TH BIRTHDAY ON SUNDAY

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. Bernard Pos will be interested in knowing that Charles Hack, the father of Mrs. Pos, celebrated his 90th birthday on Sunday.

Mr. Hack was born in Breslau, Germany, November 16th, 1834, and came to America in 1853, settling in St. Louis. He was one of the pioneers in that section of the Mississippi Valley. Mr. Hack afterwards removed from St. Louis and spent most of his active life in Kansas and Colorado, and was engaged principally in farming and merchandizing. In 1860 Mr. Hack married Miss Emily Staley at Columbus, Kansas. From this union a number of children were born, four of whom are now living, two sons and two daughters. Mrs. Hack died a number of years ago, and for some time Mr. Hack has made his home with Mrs. Bernard Pos, his eldest daughter. Though feeble in body, spending most of his time in a wheel-chair, he is vigorous in intellect and his sweet Christian spirit and upright character win the love and admiration of all who come in contact with him. A party from Bryan will also go out to assist in the evening's entertainment and success.

BIG BARN ON THE J. K. PRESNALL FARM WAS BURNED ED LATE THURSDAY

Word reaching Bryan from Tabor community is to the effect that the big fine barn on the J. K. Presnall farm was totally destroyed by fire on Thursday night. It is said that some negroes had been burning trash near the scene early in the evening, and it was thought completely burned out. However, it is now thought that sparks from the trash fire, when the high wind came up, set the building on fire. The loss is said to be around $2,000.

BRAZOS COUNTY BOYS AND GIRLS CLUB DEPARTMENT

Club Notes and Farm News by County Agent C. L. Beason

Brazos Corn Production.

H. H. Schultz, statistician in Texas for the Bureau of Crop Estimates of the United States Department of Agriculture, states that the average production of corn per acre in Texas this year is 18 bushels, the total production being 79,232,000 bushels as against the five-year average of 132,000,000 bushels. The club boys in Brazos county, thus far, report a little better than 45 bushels per acre, or nearly three times the average for the state. If all who planted corn in Brazos county had done as well as these boys, the corn yield in the county would have been increased a million bushels, an amount equal to more than a million dollars. Have the club boys done the impossible or impracticable thing? Bud and Ezra Wilson, two good farmers of the Tabor community, have had difficulty in finding places to house the large crops of corn they have made this year. What is the matter with our corn production, any way? Is it altogether the seasons?

Tony Varisco, Italian Farmer.

The wonderful entertainment given by Tony Varisco to his many friends, honoring the marriage of his son, deserves more than passing notice. The great feast, beginning Saturday night at six o'clock and continuing throughout the night and all day Sunday, is characteristic of the big way Mr. Varisco does things. As this big-hearted farmer was entertaining his hundreds of friends in such a hospitable manner, one could not but reflect that only seventeen years ago this farmer-host to thousands, landed in America with only a five-cent piece in his pocket. Today he has one of the finest farms in all Texas, and his standing as a man can be no better attested to than in the language of his American neighbor who said, "I have had dealings with Tony for 12 years and have always found him as straight as a shingle." What a wonderful place is America, in Brazos county, Texas!

A Lesson on Poultry.

There was no greater improvement in any part of the Millican community fair this year over previous years than was observed in the poultry exhibit, judged by V. R. Glazener, superintendent of the A. and M. Poultry Farm. Mr. Glazener made his judging an educational exercise in that he pointed out not only the reasons for his placings but also offered most helpful suggestions on the principles underlying successful poultry raising. The many questions asked Mr. Glazener were evidence of the interest his splendid talk had aroused, and the readiness in which the answers came was indicative of his thorough knowledge of poultry husbandry.

Fertilizing the Soil.

The Semi-Weekly Farm News quotes J. C. Pridmore of the Southern Fertilizer Association, as saying during the soil improvement campaign now on in East Texas, "The big problem before the farmer at present is in doing things that must be done before fertilizing will yield a profit and deciding the right kind and quantity of fertilizer to use." The use of fertilizer has gotten a "black eye" many a time when the suggestions given by Mr. Pridmore had never been considered or put into practice. Among these would be, of course, preparation of land turning under green crops, legumes, etc., and proper cultivation.

Millican Club Election.

The Millican club boys and girls have closed up their year's work, one of the most successful they have ever had, and have re-organized with the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: Miss Lillian Mills, president (re-elected); Miss Janey Ward, secretary (re-elected); Walter Craig, vice-president; Miss Doris Simpson, assistant secretary; Miss Elsie Mills, reporter; Guy Curd, yell leader (re-elected); Mrs. Vada Simpson, adult club leader (re-elected). With this wide-awake bunch of officers, all enthusiastic for club work, and with Professor McCreary, principal of the Millican school, heartily in sympathy with club activities, we predict for the Millican club a year of high achievement. Lookout, other clubs of the county, "The camels are coming."

Tabor Shows Lack of Interest.

The county agent turned down two invitations last Friday night to attend meetings, one at Wellborn and the other at Edge, in order to meet with the Tabor boys and girls at the installation of their new officers for the coming club year, only to find that some neighborhood "frolie" had attracted the boys and girls away from their own announced meeting. Let's call things by their right names. Such lack of interest will never win for the Tabor boys and girls honors which they have heretofore enjoyed, and for which the community has received the widest publicity.

Brazos County and Turkey.

It is said that Texas furnishes one-tenth of the turkeys used for Thanksgiving dinners throughout the United States and it should also be remembered that Brazos county is one of the foremost turkey counties of Texas, and the industry is only in its infancy. The great need is for the raisers to become better acquainted with the essentials of success, prime of which is organization.

Mrs. Franze's Poultry Record.

Mrs. Franze of the Kurten community has clearly demonstrated what is possible to accomplish in the poultry industry by any one who will stay on the job and follow safe and sound principles. For a number of years Mrs. Franze has been breeding Barred Rocks, but only three or four years ago, through assistance given by the Extension Service, did she begin the breed for egg production along with type and color of birds. The results from her close attention to her poultry have been most gratifying, and should lend encouragement to others interested. Mrs. Franze's report follows: Average number of hens 112 Number of eggs laid 18,721 Average per hen 167 Eggs and chicks used at home figured at market price as expense.

Received for eggs $476.75 Received for fryers and brooding stock 572.72 196 young birds on hand valued at 305.00 Total income $1,354.47 Expense for— 25,144 lbs. of feed $649.20 195 gallons of coal oil 27.50 3 brooder wicks 1.05 Vaccine 4.50 Total expense $682.25 Net income $672.22

(From Tuesday's Daily) Paul Freeman, division superintendent of the Western Public Service Company, with headquarters at Navasota, was in the city on Friday in conference with S. W. Jackson, one of the owners of the Madisonville electric plant, with a view of buying the plant.

The Western Public Service Company, owning about seventy-five utilities in various parts of the country, including properties in Navasota, Sour Lake, Somerville, Hempstead, Calvert, Remond, Franklin, Hearne, Bryan, Caldwell, and Kosse, Texas, contemplate constructing a high voltage transmission line from Navasota to Madisonville through Anderson, Singleton, Bedia, Shiro, Iola, Roan's Prairie, and Richards. The construction of the line from Navasota to Anderson is now under way.

Many Transmission Lines. W. J. McNally, an auditor for the company, and R. E. Thompson, consulting engineer, were in the city Monday and Tuesday, making a survey of the property in detail. Mr. Freeman advises that this company has constructed a large number of transmission lines to connect their smaller properties in various states.

A transmission line has been constructed from their large central station at Calvert, connecting Franklin, Remond and Kosse, with the Calvert plant.

Reducing the Cost.

A transmission line has just been completed from Summerville to Caldwell through Lyons, connecting this group and this line will be extended to Navasota or Bryan in the near future to a central power station.

A group of a number of towns to be supplied with electricity from one large central power plant is being accomplished by all of the larger operating companies in order to materially reduce the cost of electricity for all purposes in the smaller towns, and in addition to this to supply them with adequate power for all industries that might wish to avail themselves of electric power which when furnished at an attractive rate is the cheapest and best power in use today.—Madisonville Meteor.

PROFESSOR HALEY ENTERTAINED LIONS AT MEETING TODAY

(From Tuesday's Daily) The program for the Lions Club meeting today at the Episcopal parish dining room was in charge of Jess Hensarling. Following the dinner hour and songs, a feature of which hour was the fun at the expense of "Daddy" Jess Cook, the visitors where introduced. Mrs. M. R. Bentley, president of the West Side Parent-Teachers' Association, was present as a guest and made a short humorous talk and closed with a serious expression of her gratitude and appreciation for the many things that the club had done for Bryan and particularly its school system, and predicting a great future for the club which is giving real service.

Rev. L. Guy Ament, pastor of the Christian church, then introduced after a short and witty talk, Rev. Al B. Nelson, the evangelist who has just closed a two weeks' series of meetings at this church, who spoke in a humorous vein and yet left some good sound thoughts in the minds of his hearers. Then the meeting was turned over to Professor A. L. Haley, the evangelist, who is a past master in the art of entertaining, having been with Chautauque circuits for a number of years. Rev. Ament introduced him as "a preacher and a trickster." He certainly entertained the Lions and Lionesses and visitors present for about 15 minutes, both his sleight-of-hand and witty conversation accompanying his program.

Next Week's Meeting. The next meeting of the Lions on next Tuesday, according to announcement of President C. A. Searay, will be devoted to a complete and thorough discussion, from all viewpoints, of the proposition of the sale of the city municipal plant as regards the proposal recently made by the Western Public Service Company and rejected by the City of Bryan.

The body was recovered. Another was lost and the body had not been found when the party left.

REV. BULLOCK PASSES AWAY SUNDAY

The passing of Rev. J. M. Bullock at the family home in Bryan Sunday afternoon, November 16th, at 6:30 o'clock took from earth one of God's noblemen, and sadness is in the hearts of the family and a host of friends who knew and loved him. For many months past Rev. Bullock has been confined to his home, enfeebled by a slight stroke of apoplexy, but was able to see and enjoy his friends, and always bright, cheerful and hopeful. The light of that Faith which had upheld and led him all through life still shone in his eyes, and still brought peace and comfort to his declining days. A second stroke came, however, late Saturday afternoon, and his life ebbed slowly away, until death came at the hour above stated. Medical skill, love and prayers did their best to keep him, but they were unavailing. Death won, and his family and friends mourn today the loss of a husband and father, kind neighbor, loyal advocate of the highest and best in life, and a high priest in friendship's holy temple, a patriot, a Christian gentleman.

James Madison Bullock was born in Wynn Parish, Louisiana, May 14, 1851, and came to Texas and to Brazos county in January, 1871. In November, 1871, at Steep Hollow, this county, he was married to Miss Mary Adams, daughter of the Rev. Elias Adams, a pioneer Baptist preacher. Truly, theirs was an union blessed of God, and Providence has guided them through the long way of life, blessed them with noble children, friends and comforts, and now, at the close of life's day, the good husband and father has been called to enter the more abundant life.

(From Monday's Daily) The fire alarm sounded about 10 o'clock this morning and a sent both fire trucks to the Will Conlee home in the southwestern part of the city near the residence of Mrs. R. R. Knowles. A fire was found to be burning around the flue which leads to the belief that a defective flue caused the blaze. About 1,000 feet of hose was laid by the firemen from a hydrant two blocks distant. Chemicals and water both were used. An unofficial estimate places the fire loss at around $100 or more with a loss from water and chemicals at fully as much more.

Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Bullock have been an inspiration to all who know them, as hand in hand they have walked down the highway of life together. For many years past the sun has been far down the western slope, the evening shadows lengthened, and they realized that the night soon must come down. But, they were together in perfect peace, perfect security, because He was their "refuge and strength," and the "Lord endureth forever."

Rev. J. M. Bullock was a minister of the Gospel for thirty-six years, and the beloved pastor of many of the rural churches over Brazos county, continuously, until his failing health prevented. Pastor, friend, advisor, comforter, he went among his people, and did what he could at all times to cheer, to strengthen and sustain them. Truly, he will be missed by the people of Brazos county as perhaps no other man, for during the past fifty years, in times of joy and of sadness, he has indeed been a tower of strength and comfort to all around him.

Twelve boys of Troop No. 13, Bryan Boy Scouts, led by Scoutmaster W. S. Barron went on a "Possum and one possum" hunt in the Navasota bottoms Friday night and bagged two coons and one possum. Just before the hunt started they were joined by Mr. Nunn Jones who furnished three dogs which lived up the party by their participation in the hot arguments which usually take place when dog meets coon. Those enjoying the hunt were: Theodore and Willis Boriskie, Robt. John Persons, Frank Bain, Henry and Neal Godwin, Sam and Jake Kaplan, John M. Barron, Chas. and Buddie Moehman, Wilmon Ross, and Scoutmaster W. S. Barron.

"OWN YOUR OWN HOME" IS SLOGAN ADOPTED BY BRYAN'S "FAIR" STORE

"The Fair" store, merchandizing goods for "fair" people at a "fair" price, is now housed in a home of its own in the same location, the proprietor, W. R. Thomas, having purchased the building from M. F. Dansby, the consideration being $25,000. The deal was closed on last Saturday night. Mr. Thomas said that he felt that the purchase of the building, cutting off the rent, will enable him to give his patronage better service and prices.

FATHER MRS. BERNARD POS CELEBRATED 90TH BIRTHDAY ON SUNDAY

The many friends of Rev. and Mrs. Bernard Pos will be interested in knowing that Charles Hack, the father of Mrs. Pos, celebrated his 90th birthday on Sunday. Mr. Hack was born in Breslau, Germany, November 16th, 1834, and came to America in 1853, settling in St. Louis. He was one of the pioneers in that section of the Mississippi Valley. Mr. Hack afterward removed from St. Louis and spent most of his active life in Kansas and Colorado, and was engaged principally in farming and merchandising. In 1860 Mr. Hack married Miss Emily Staley at Columbus, Kansas. From this union a number of children were born, four of whom are now living, two sons and two daughters. Mrs. Hack died a number of years ago, and for some time Mr. Hack has made his home with Mrs. Bernard Pos, his eldest daughter. Though feeble in body, spending most of his time in a wheel-chair, he is vigorous in intellect and his sweet Christian spirit and upright character win the love and admiration of all who come in contact with him. Mr. Hack's anniversary was celebrated with a bountiful dinner, an interesting feature was a beautiful cake decorated with 90 candles. The honor guests of this occasion were Rev. and Mrs. W. N. Sholl and family. The friends of Mr. Hack and of the Pos family extend him their heartiest congratulations, and hope that he will be spared to pass many other milestones along life's journey.

RELIANCE COMMUNITY CLUB HELD MEETING LAST FRIDAY NIGHT

Owing to the lowered temperatures and the fact that the called, postponed meeting had not been as widely advertised as it might have been, there was but a small attendance present at the Reliance Community Club meeting at the Reliance church on Saturday night. The meeting was called to order immediately upon the arrival of the party from Bryan which consisted of County Agent C. L. Beason, County Home Demonstration Agent Miss Laura Belle Roten, Miss Gladys Reigle, dramatic teacher at the Bryan high school, and H. D. Cuykendall and "Dad" Lee of the Eagle office.

A number of readings, stories, songs, etc., were the entertainment of the evening, with Miss Reigle and Mr. Cuykendall doing the reading, etc. Then County Agent Beason gave a talk on terracing work and on the matter of purpose-programs. He also led the boys and girls of the club in some fun-songs. Miss Roten talked briefly in regard to the girls' club work and the reorganization of the boys' and girls' club which is to take place this week.

The next meeting of the Reliance Community Club promises to be a good one. The program committee expects to present the school children in a program and a large crowd is anticipated. A party from Bryan will also go out to assist in the evening's entertainment and success.

BIG BARN ON THE J. K. PRESNAL FARM WAS BURNED LATE THURSDAY

Word reaching Bryan from Tabor community is to the effect that the big fine barn on the J. K. Presnal farm was totally destroyed by fire on Thursday night. It is said that some negroes had been burning trash near the scene early in the evening, and it was thought completely burned out. However, it is now thought that sparks from the trash fire, when the high wind came up, set the building on fire. The loss is said to be around $2,000.

REVIVAL HAS CLOSED AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The revival closed last night at the Christian church. The meeting has been running for two weeks. The finest spirit prevailing throughout the meeting. There were many blessings to the ones in attendance. The high spiritual plane of the preaching and the singing was evident in each service.

Rev. Al B. Nelson has endeared himself to the church here very much. Many words of appreciation were heard regarding his sermons. Prof. A. L. Haley was always in the proper spirit and ready to help along. His pictures in song were highly appreciated by everyone. He expressed the highest praise of the Bryan people.

The pastor wishes to thank all for the help rendered during the meeting. He states that the pastors of the various churches were faithful and attended many times and gave of their influence for the great cause. In all, the church seems well satisfied with these evangelistic efforts.

Miss Laura Belle Roten, county home demonstration agent, attended the rally day program given by the club boys and girls at the Millican school on Monday.
